NOTICE

The public will kindly take notice that on and after the 15th of April, a War Stamp, to the value of two (2) cents must be affixed to all Cheques, Notes, Bills of Exchange, Money Orders, Traveller's Cheques, etc., which are negotiated at this Bank. The Bank has no authority to affix the necessary stamp to such instruments, and the party issuing the same is liable to a fine of $50.00, for failure to comply with the law.

The Bank would further give notice to the farmers in this district, that in future, all notes must be promptly attended to on or before the due date of same, as considerable trouble and expense is incurred by the Bank, when farmers allow their paper to go past due. In future an additional charge will be made for every notice mailed, after the first notice advising the maturity of the note.

Carlstadt Improvement Association Formed

Enthusiasm is Contagious

As the result of two meetings held recently in N. E. Stuart's office by citizens determined to make a better, cleaner, more progressive town, the Carlstadt Improvement Association was launched, with a fine complement of live members on Tuesday night. The deputation from former meeting, that waited on Council gave a very satisfactory report. The organization carries the following officers, elected for six months:

President: N. E. Stuart.
Vice President: O. J. Wood.
Sec-Treas: W. D. MacKay.
Committee: E. H. Smith, G. M. Thompson, R. H. Thornton.
Note—The roll of membership is at the News office. The membership fee for six months is very small and the secretary would be pleased to see any citizens who wish to join this "pull together" movement. Come in and sign.

Roman Catholic society will be held at the Carlstadt Hotel, Sunday April 25th at 10 a.m.

Death Occurs at Tide Lake

The death occurred Saturday, at Tide Lake, of a highly respected lady, in the person of Mrs. J. Bryson. Mrs. Bryson has been in failing health for a number of years, and spent the winter in Redcliff, where she continually received medical treatment, but to no avail; and when she returned home about a month ago, she was informed that recovery was deemed impossible. She leaves behind to mourn the loss of wife and mother, her husband, A. J. Bryson, three daughters and five sons. The daughters are: Mrs. Lily Gloucheski, Tide Lake, Mrs. Nellie Taitson, Lathorn, Mrs. Mary Ledford, Delmanne, Idaho. The sons are: Alonzo, Chris, Winslow and Willie, Tide Lake, and Charlie, of Tennessee.

The late Mrs. Bryson was 57 years old, and spent her early years in Tennessee. In 1909, the family moved from Idaho and settled at Tide Lake.

The funeral was held Monday to Carlstadt Cemetery; Rev. F. E. Clydsdale officiating at the home and graveside. A. J. Drummond was funeral director.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Stuart and daughter Florence returned from Shamokawa, Wash. on Sunday.

When planting potatoes, remember that your crop grown from good pure seed will be worth one third more than your neighbors grown from any old seed. Every spring, hundreds of cars of seed potatoes are shipped from the East. We can supply them here. This is a good potato-country; and potatoes should be one of our best crops. Wiest Grain Company.

H. Villett, pastor of Suffield Methodist Church, spent Monday to Wednesday with Rev. E. E. Clydsdale.

E. E. Allen of Tide Lake came in by stage on Tuesday and took the afternoon train to Calgary, where he will engage in the broom manufacturing business.

The work on the U.F.A. weighing platform has been completed, and is now in use by the farmers around.

Dan O'Keefe has bought a saddle horse, to learn to ride. Look out boys!

R. Spence, official Government Relief Officer, has had a busy time these last two weeks. Mr. Spence left Wednesday for his home in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Mr. Bond will manage the work until the close of distribution.

Jack Howe tried Tuesday evening to illustrate on anyone, how Willard knocked out Johnson; but fortunately only two dogs were in sight.

W. A. Bond has returned from Medicine Hat, where he spent Easter. Before leaving the Hat he made arrangements with H. H. Brown, Relief Agent and Commissioner, to forward to Jenner a supply of hay sufficient to enable the farmers to put in their crop. Many thanks Mr. Bond.

The mail was rather late this week, not arriving until Saturday afternoon. Mr. Websdale had a trying time with the heavy roads. While waiting for the mail a base ball match was arranged, and judging by the display of several, Jenner should be able to furnish quite a respectable team.

There is quite a little snow around here, and from reports received, there has been more snow here than anywhere else. The sloughs are well filled, and as there is a lot of summer fallow, there is every prospect of a good crop.

A. C. Hughes arrived Wednesday from Carlstadt, and has taken up his duties in the Union Bank here.

Town Council Holds Meeting

What They Did:

1. Drafted new pound by-law.
 2. Drafted new sanitary by-law.
 3. Appointed R. H. Thornton, town constable.
 4. Appointed Morton Peters as pound keeper.
 5. Declared April 20th clean-up day and a half holiday.
- Monday night's meeting of Council was a long drawn out affair, and the shades of midnight were creeping on, when adjournment came. W. L. Stevens, of the citizens' deputation started the ball rolling at 8:15, and after giving Mr. Stevens a hearing, Council gave his proposals a serious discussion.

Quite a number of citizens were present to witness the proceedings; and harmony reigned throughout. Mayor McDiarmid, Councillors Cotter and McEwen all expressed themselves as pleased that the citizens offered to support the Council in their undertakings. Mr. Stevens advocated a strict enforcement of Pound Law, the appointing of a constable and more attention to sanitary and health measures.

Council then got to work and after long discussions on each improvement suggested, the reforms mentioned at the start of this report resulted.

Council will meet again on Monday April 19th, when the different by-laws will be moved up another page.

A. D. McKellar wishes the News to state that he was the party meant in a recent Palonia item as having tried to put a twelve year old boy off the floor at a dance. Mr. McKellar states that the statement was erroneous. If an injustice was done the gentleman the News regrets it.

THURSDAY, APRIL 15th, 1915

NO business man, professional man, or manufacturer in any town, should allow a newspaper published in his town, to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This applies to all kinds of business—general stores, hardware, groceries, furniture dealers, manufacturing establishments, automobile dealers, mechanics, professional men, etc. This does not mean that you should have a whole, or half, or even a quarter page ad. in every issue of the paper; but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two line space. A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell just what business is represented in a town, by looking at the businesses mentioned in the paper. This is the best possible town advertiser. The man who does not advertise his business, does an injustice to himself and his town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to a town, but refuses to advertise his business, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of any town depends upon the live, wide-awake, and liberal advertising business man.—Exchange.

THE News has always prided itself on its country correspondence. Last weeks' budget was particularly worth while. Six different centers contributed, with over five columns. We mention this just to give our advertisers some idea of the reading value our paper is to this big district. At every one of the centers written up in our columns, we have many subscribers.

CARLSTADT can now boast of a Council that does things and an Improvement Association that is determined to make it a liveable, healthy, attractive town. A healthy atmosphere prevails in municipal circles. The thin edge of the wedge of community spirit has entered. Already many citizens have signed the roll of the association that means to pull together. There are some citizens yet, who do not grasp the significance of the movement, and prefer to scoff; but let us hope that they too, will affix their signatures to the roll of progressive citizenship.

"I Thank you gentlemen for the honor. I hope before my term of office is completed, that you will see results from our organization." These were the words of Mr. N. E. Stuart, when accepting the presidency of the Carlstadt Improvement Association. Mr. Stuart is sincere and his example should be followed by every progressive citizen this year.

Communication

Carlstadt, Alberta.

April 14, 1915.

Dear Editor:

During my trip in the country north of town holding meetings in the interest of prohibition, I was surprised to find a man who was bold to assert that the Hudson's Bay Co. would monopolize the liquor business if this prohibition bill passed, and could establish wholesale liquor stores in every town in the province. He was further publishing broadcast a statement that he had in his possession a letter from the Provincial Secretary of this province to the effect that the Hudson's Bay Co. operated their liquor stores without a license. Questioning the veracity of that statement, I wrote the Provincial Secretary for an official statement on the question and received the following reply, which I hope will clear any mind of doubt, with regard to the privileges of this company:

Dept. of the Attorney General, Alta
Liquor License Branch.

Edmonton, April 6, 1915
Fred E. Clysdale, Esq.

Methodist Minister, Carlstadt.

Sir:

Your letter addressed to the Provincial Secretary has been handed to this Department for reply. With reference to your questions regarding the Hudson's Bay Co. This Company holds licenses to sell liquor by wholesale at Lethbridge, Medicine Hat, Calgary and Edmonton, paying, therefore, the required wholesale license fees. The department does not know that they are disposing of liquors at any of their other trading posts in the Province of Alberta. Yours Respectfully,

F. G. Forster

Chief License Inspector.

Now, Mr. Editor, it is quite evident that the Hudson's Bay Co., is at present subject to all the laws of the Municipality, Province, and Dominion. When the Dominion Government made an agreement with this Company, subsequent to the date of their charter, and when this agreement was ratified by Imperial Statute, all their rights were extinguished, except that of recognition as an incorporated commercial institution; and when the McDonald Bill, which was the original name of our proposed prohibition act, was before the Kings Bench Court, of Manitoba, all parties were represented by council. HIS TRAIN IS COMING IN since Judge Pordue, acted for the Hudson's Bay Co., and the point as to the rights of the Hudson's Bay Co., was not even raised. The act was carried to the Privy Council of Great Britain, and was pronounced by the Judicial Committee to be good law. The same act was enacted in Prince Edward Island and has been in full operation there for thirteen years. The same act with a few slight changes was adopted two years ago in Nova Scotia, with the exception of the city of Halifax.

I hope these few statements make three two facts, viz: that the act is constitutional; and that the Hudson's Bay Co., will have no more privileges than any other corporation or individual. The above letter is on file to be seen by anyone who desires to see it.

Yours for a dry Alberta,

Buy an Irrigated Farm FROM THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY

BECAUSE

Irrigation makes the farmer independent of rainfall and insures good crops, not occasionally, but every year.

Irrigation makes possible the successful culture of alfalfa, the king of fodders, which insures best returns in dairying and mixed farming.

Irrigation means intensive farming and close settlement with all the advantages of a densely populated agricultural community.

Irrigation in the Canadian Pacific Railway Irrigation Block is no longer an experiment, the year 1914 having absolutely demonstrated its success wherever intelligently applied.

You can buy irrigated land from the Canadian Pacific Railway at prices ranging from $35 to $75 per acre, with twenty years to pay and the privilege of a loan of $2,000.00 for improvements (5% interest); no principal payment at the end of first and second years and no water rental for first year. SOCIAL LIFE IN FRANCE.

Women Equal Partners With the Men in All Amusements.
Frenchmen cannot live alone; there must always be an Eve in their paradise. The bachelor party, which is a common feature in English social life, is unthinkable in France. How can men enjoy themselves without women? Women is their enjoyment.

It is only the cold Englishman who wants to leave his wife at home while he bags or plays golf. The Frenchman's first essay in the royal and ancient game are always accompanied by a feminine retinue—his wife, his aunt and his mother-in-law. It is only when he makes progress in the game and realises the necessity of his wife's presence that he consents to separate himself for an hour or two from feminine society. Unless he plays advanced golf he will always prefer his wife's society on the links to that of a man. That is why club life is impossible in Paris except club life of a special sort, involving success for high status and appealing to a rich and leisured class. Yet in this case compensation is offered to the often-forgotten momentary abandoned wife her husband goes to the "tripot." She is invited to weekly theatrical entertainments at the club—entertainments provided for, by the way, by the card money squandered by the men. And the exhibitions of all sorts that flourish at the clubs—nearly every one has some artistic mission—are so many occasions for the mingling of the sexes. From "France and the French," by Charles Darwin.

MARRIED MISERY.

Indifference Plays Havoc With Happiness in the Home.

The foe of married happiness is indifference. The real wrong to the wife is the real failure of the husband, is when he becomes unconscious of what she is doing for him and what she is in herself. At first her ministrations and her affection are delightful to him. Then perhaps they become a thing of course—received, enjoyed in a fashion, but hardly thought of. And some time, though not so frequently, the wife becomes unthoughtful of her husband.

Perhaps into most marriages there creeps on one side or on both some of this indifference. Husband and wife live together in the chief external relation. He is the breadwinner; she is the housekeeper. They accept each other's good qualities as men wear easy fitting clothes, without noticing. They put up with each other's defects as with a smoky chimney of any other appliance. They would confess to no alienation. They have only got used to each other. It is the same "getting used" that robs life of its brightness; that makes us blind to the stars and the clouds and the bright procession of the day and year, because we have seen them so often; that keeps us mostly in a numb, self-satisfied state from which only occasionally we are roused to feel that we are living in a divine universe and are ourselves divine. George St. Merriam in "The Man of Today."

Knighthood For Women.

It is not at all well known that knighthood has constantly been conferred upon women. Many English ladies received the accolade, and many more were members of such knightly orders as the Garter and St. John. When Mary Chomondore, "the bold girl of Cheshire," was knighted by Elizabeth for "her valiant address" on the queen taking command at the threatened invasion by Spain, did she know that a whole city of Spanish women, the gallant women of Tortosa, had been knighted for saving that city from the Moors? Mary and Elizabeth had both been knighted at their coronations, but by the time Anne, the second Mary and Victoria succeeded in throne it had been quite forgotten that, according to English law and use, a woman who filled a man's office acquired all his privileges and was immune from some of its duties.—London Graphic.

The Volcano of Kilaua.

Kilaua, on the island of Hawaii, as high as Vesuvius and twice as wide, has thrown thirty miles from the sea in a mountain range. There have been several centuries of Kilaua's fire, the last hundred years. In 1840 there was a violent eruption of lava, the light of which, it was reported, could be seen a hundred miles away. Where the lava flowed through the forest it left curtains of smoke in the shape of lava arches, ridges and great waves. These waves were formed by the lava piling itself into some lofty tree trunk, burning away the wood within and killing the upper part of the tree. In the course of time seeds were deposited in the top, filled with decaying bark, until now there is a gigantic lava vine, climbing ferns and flowers and vines.

The Passing of Rome.

The Paul Hervey of 1775—"O arms of you, you and rouse your neighbors! The British have left Boston and are now marching this way. They'll be here before daybreak!" If It Happened Now—Hello, long distance! Give me one-seven-seventeen Lexington. * * * The Lexington Well, this is Hervey. The British are coming! Tip of Concord, will you? Thanks, Goodbye!—Puck.

New Holland

It has been a busy time in the Dutch settlement lately. Mr. van Weert and Mr. Balster have moved their houses and Van der Berg his store; the store will be open day and night.

Mr. Visser had to move his barn as the water in the slough was too high.

The Dutch Song Club gave a good entertainment last Friday; the songs being very well sung. The chocolate cake was good too!

The road to the church is under water for a quarter of a mile. If you wish to get through, call at Kuisen's place, he runs the ferry.

The frogs are making so much noise these nights, that Mr. Jansen can't sleep.

Somebody was shooting at a wooden duck, but he could not kill it.

Messrs. Baan and van der Berg went to Seven Person to get some horses.

The Dutch party that went to town a few weeks ago to secure a marriage license but could not get one, have changed their minds, and will not marry.

Mr. van Dyke bought a cow last week; so that there will be plenty of work to do making butter and cheese.

Tide Lake

The U. F. A. held their regular meeting Saturday the 10th. The debate on Women Suffrage resulted in a decision for the affirmative. It was decided to hold the picnic on June 3rd, instead of May 24th, and to invite the other Unions. A committee was appointed for the speaking, sports and other attractions; which will be many. Some of the attractions already booked are: two balloon ascensions, a merry-go-round and a parade. Sports so far consists of: two ball games, horse racing, fat and slim men's race, hard times race, ladies' races, sack race, climbing the greasy pole and a target practice. Refreshments will be served. Come one, come all; both great and small and hear the loud eagle squall.

R. Clarke and sons are busy these days breaking some "brunk" mules. Reuben says they kick like "lay" steers; but he has no fears so long as Dr. McCall is handy.

Flour and feed for sale at the Farmers Elevator, Friday and Saturday of each week. Your patronage is solicited.

ELECTRIC ILLUMINATION.

The Difference Between the Arc Light and the Incandescent.

It is a curious fact that while the average man knows that, roughly speaking, there are two kinds of "electric light"—the arc light and the incandescent light—he has a hazy notion of the difference between the two. The light of the incandescent light differs wholly in principle, in brilliancy, in appearance and in the mode of use. The distinguishing difference to an ordinary observer between arc and incandescent lights may be briefly stated thus: Arc lights burn in the open air with carbon sticks or pencils, the points or ends of which are heated to a white heat and gradually consumed.

Incandescent lights, on the contrary, are produced inside small glass globes of various shapes from which the air has been exhausted. These lights are caused by the passage of electricity through a fine resisting wire or thread, which is thereby raised into a white or incandescent light without being consumed on account of the absence of air. If air leaks in the filament immediately burns up, and that is the end of it.

The term "arc" is an old one adopted years ago, referring to the supposed shape an electric spark takes when passing from one carbon point to the other.—Harper's Weekly.

It must have required much art and care to make dishes, plates, saltcellars, sauce dishes and glasses stand steadily in the midst of this undulating sea and among those "bubbles" and puffing folds. However, the fashion had only a short existence, and toward the latter part of the century a single cloth laid flat and touching the floor on all sides of the table came into general use.—New York Tribune.
